Breaking Logjams Can Be Dangerous: Exercise Care

I sense it now more than ever: the logjam of apathy, the vicious circle which has kept this Party on the kitchen table for so many years is about to break, largely because of the Internet but also because the work and the sweat and effort and money which so many people have put into the NSWPP is starting to pay off. We are getting new subscribes to NSNet daily, Our e-mail list is now at least the third biggest racial listserv in the White right, after the Zundelgrams and List Stormfront, and we may even have passed the Z-grams by now, given the wider White audience to which we appeal on subjects other than Revisionism. Our web site reports a growing number of hits every week, and our Net activity is finally, slowly beginning to translate itself into membership, support, and money.

But it's not just the Net that's causing the Party to expand; the C.S.U. has been getting mail inquiries at a record high this past month—in January, traditionally one of the slowest months for activism, during the dead of winter. These inquiries are coming from literature distribution, because we've got more of you doing it in more cities around the country. Our Fort Worth Hotline is so popular that twice in the past month we've had to pull off our popular "Dry Ice Washington" Ebonics parodies because the phone company's lines were jammed and their equipment overloaded with all the calls.

The logjam is finally starting to break—but a breaking logjam can be very dangerous, the footing uncertain, and sudden pitfalls can suddenly appear. I have noticed in the past that one of the riskiest times for any racial group is when there is a sudden spurt of growth and progress. The enemy sits up and takes notice, and the group in question is suddenly ratcheted up several notches on ZOG's priority list. Judging from the comments of Nizkor, Morris Dees, et. al. the NSWPP is definitely being noticed, and we have got a lot of people rattled, especially with new developments on the Net like our Party chat room #nswpp.

We need to expect increased harassment from the enemy. We have already been waging a silent cyber-war with Nizkor and other enemies of National Socialism for some time now on the Internet; they have forged e-mails and NSNet Bulletins, spammed these forgeries to people in order to annoy them and generate complaints to our server, called the ISP and screamed that I was "libeling" them by commenting publicly on their own Net posts and activities, etc. There have been some minor incidents of harassment at my apartment here, and I fully expect more. Don't be surprised at any development, just keep your eye on the ball and keep on working for a National Socialist future. There's no question the Party has our racial enemies apprehensive. Let's justify that apprehension! - Winston Smith

Why I Believe In Jewish Ritual Murder

The following is a post from a Revisionist Internet listserv, and the General Secretary's reply.

Hello all,

My name is Rich and I just recently joined this list. I'm interested in Revisionism and open debate on the Holocaust. Does this list engage in open debate on the Holocaust or did I join the wrong list? Also, I just read about Jewish ritual murder. Do people believe that this is true?

Regards,
Richard Green

Dear Mr. Green:

Yes, I do believe that the Jews have practiced ritual murder as part of their religious ceremonies in the past, and that they almost certainly continue to do so today, with the following qualifiers:

*I do not believe this practice is or ever has been widespread, but has always been restricted to a small number of the most hardcore rabbis and Jewish cabalistic mystic sects;

*I am perfectly willing to accept the likelihood that individual Jews down through history have been falsely accused of this practice, just as I believe that on the other hand it has often been carried out undetected and/or unpunished. The Beiliss case in 1913 Russia is a good case in point: Mendel Beiliss himself was probably innocent of the actual commission of murder, although he may have been peripherally involved in disposing of the young boy's body and in covering up the act on the part of his co-religionists;

*I am willing to accept that the majority of Jews are unaware that the "blood libel" has at least a partial grounding in fact and accordingly they genuinely believe it to be a slander, just as most Jews probably believe that the Holocaust really occurred more or less as advertised, despite mounting evidence to the contrary.

My belief in the preceding is based on two foundations: extensive study of the historical, cultural, and religious aspects of Judaism, and my own personal observation, dealings, and experience with the Jews as individual people over a period of 25 years. I don't want this e-mail to get too prolix, since this isn't really my area of enthusiasm—the Jews' public and political crimes are far worse than their private religious ones—but briefly summarized:

1. There is an immense amount of anecdotal and circumstantial evidence that these sacrificial homicides took place in the past, back in times when concealment was harder and the Aryans far more aware and wary of the Jew than they are today.

It is significant that ever since the days of Babylon, a period of almost four thousand years, this accusation (like many others) has been leveled against the Jews everywhere they have ever resided in the world. Time and again down through the ages the Jews have been caught literally red-handed, in some cases toting the dead body of the child whose blood they have drained away to dispose of it in sacks or wagons, sometimes with the corpse and blood matzoh being found in the synagogue cellars, etc.

The Jews' response to this is invariably "ve is beink poisecute!" They maintain that down through forty centuries of history, there has been a mammoth conspiracy on the part of all the peoples of the earth to frame them for ritual murder. According to this theory, in places as far apart as Cochín China, medieval Germany, 1913 Kiev and 1970 Montreal, and among peoples as diverse as knightly Crusaders, Turkish sultans, twelfth-century Yorkshire Saxons, Argentinians, Cosacks, British historians, Renaissance Italian popes, assorted saints and sinners, the burgomeisters of Prague, and modern-day Arabs, there exists one big long, continuous plot periodically to murder small children, drain them of blood, and plant the bodies on Jewish premises or in Jewish vehicles, etc. That's one hell of a conspiracy!

There are other similar complaints always leveled against the Jews in every time and place, wherever they have wandered—economic trickery and despoliation, refusal to assimilate, disloyalty to their host country, arrogant behavior and hatred against their hosts, etc. The Jewish response is always the same—for four thousand years, everybody in the world has engaged in a colossal conspiracy to "get" them. Any individual person claiming that the whole world was out to get him would be diagnosed as paranoid schizophrenic; the Jews have made an entire religion out of it. Nowadays most people believe that, not surprising in view of the Jewish control of the media of communications which has existed in varying strengths in the Western world since the late nineteenth century. But in the old days it didn't wash. Our Folk knew the Jew.

The Jewish response is always the same—for four thousand years, everybody in the world has engaged in a colossal conspiracy to "get" them.

Our medieval ancestors were not fools. They lived with the Jews side by side in close-packed urban communities, very small by modern standards, and they had an opportunity to observe the Jews at close hand, every day, far more intimately than we do today. Just like people nowadays, the men and women of earlier times cared about their children, perhaps more so since a child's life expectancy was so much shorter in those medically primitive eras. When a child was slain the entire community interested itself not only for purposes of revenge, but to ensure the safety of everyone's kids.

Yet we are asked to believe that time and again, insular communities where everybody knew everybody else, who discovered they had a child-killer in their midst stubbornly refused to apprehend the alleged Gentile "real killers" and blamed the Jews out of religious bigotry. What possible interest could any community, medieval or otherwise, have in lynching an innocent scapegoat and allowing a real killer of children to go free? Why would everyone in Trier or Lincoln or Spoleto or Kiev go along with such a miscarriage of justice when doing so put other children at risk? Why did the child-killings cease once the Jews had been punished and (usually) driven from the community?

2. The Jewish religion allows for and practices animal sacrifice, per the Old Testament or Torah as they call it, although these customs have long been held in abeyance and in theory apply only to the Temple in Jerusalem. There is an entire sect of "Kohanim" in Israel who practice these rituals and train successive generations of rabbis in the techniques of sacrifice in anticipation of the day when Israel succeeds in wresting the Al Aqsa mosque away from the Muslims who have held it for 1400 years and rebuilds the Temple.

The Talmud teaches that non-Jews are goyim, beasts without souls. To a religious Jew there is no difference between a German or an American or an African, and a cow or a horse or a fish; all lesser non-Jewish forms of life, humanoid or otherwise, were put here by God to serve and pleasure the Jew. When the Jews claim that they do not practice "human" sacrifice they are by their own weird lights telling the truth. They do not consider Gentiles to be human.

3. For the past 25 years I have been in a unique position to observe Jewish behavior and the Jewish character at first hand, since being a National Socialist they don't bother to keep their usual variety of masks on with me and they let all that Talmudic hatred hang out. Anyone who has ever done night duty in a National Socialist headquarters and lifted the telephone for call after call, hour after hour, to hear the crazed screaming

Brooklynese of a Jew driven mad by hatred, spewing a string of profanity and terms of excrement, raving like some demented parrot or monkey, totally out of all human control—thus begins wisdom. Anyone who wants to understand the true nature of this "Light Unto The Nations" need only oppose them in public, and he will soon find out what utterly loathsome beings the Jews are, what vicious and contemptible cowards they are, what potentially deadly serpents they are.

But don't take my word for it. Check out the Nizkor playgroups and see for yourself. See a Revisionist post a calm, serious, well-researched comment on some aspect of the Holocaust and then see the literally hundreds of hysterical, malicious, hateful, filthy and abusive posts which follow from the little cadre of about two dozen kikes and kike wannabes who go berserk attacking, vilifying, insulting, and threatening anyone who dares to contradict the self-proclaimed Chosen People of God. I won't belabor this further, but I will close with two points:

First off, the Jewish people have proven themselves capable of instigating the horrors of Bolshevism, Dresden, and the slaughter of Palestinians in public. I see no reason why they should not be equally capable of practicing ritual murder in secret, and there is an immense amount of historical evidence that they did so. I cannot imagine why they would stop now in this day and age, when they have the power to conceal their misdeeds and the cap-

The Jewish people have proven themselves capable of instigating the horrors of Bolshevism, Dresden, and the slaughter of Palestinians in public. I see no reason why they should not be equally capable of practicing ritual murder in secret...

tive media falsely to portray them as victims. How many of those little children you see on milk cartons have fallen victim to the knives of the rabbis and lie buried in some remote wasteland or were ground up into dog food in some Jewish-owned processing plant? I am convinced that at least some of them met that fate.

Secondly, the Jews deserve everything that has happened to them in the past and everything that is coming to them in the future, especially when the Palestinians get their state as a toehold and America finally runs out of money and the New Yahk-Tel Aviv lifeline collapses. I do not question that innocent individuals of Jewish extraction have suffered down through the ages for crimes which they as individuals did not commit—but all the peoples of the world have suffered far more at the hands of the Chosen Ones.

The Jews are great survivors, one must grant them that. Like rats and cockroaches, and like rats and cockroaches I doubt we'll ever get rid of them entirely. But the world is a much smaller place now, global village and all that. It used to be they could just move on to the next "Goldeneh Medina" when they wore out their welcome somewhere else—but they can't do that any more. Everybody knows about them now, from Uganda to Honolulu, from Rome to Regina. That liver-lipped, hose-nosed Jewish countenance is on too many post office walls, so to speak. They've run out of trap doors to dodge through and run out of places to run and hide; the few remaining places on earth that know them not are those so barren that they've never had anything worth stealing. Even the Jews' precious, much-vaunted Israel is going to end up nothing but a death trap of Arab daggers which are even now being sharpened in anticipation of the long awaited payback.

There is a reckoning coming, a reckoning between humanity and the Jewish people which will cause the very heavens to darken and the very devils in hell to hide their faces in shock and terror. You might say we owe them a Holocaust. We've been paying their bill for fifty years, and at some point we're finally going to get what we've paid for.

And when that day comes, who knows? Even I might pity them.....

Naaaaaaaah!

Mark Twain On The Jewish Question

Mark Twain's true opinion of the Jews is probably the best kept secret in American literary history. Immediately after his death, his eccentric daughter Clara married a Jewish piano player, Otto Gabriilowitsch. After that Twain's publishers were given speedy instructions to delete "Concerning the Jews" from the collected works, where it had appeared in the book The Man Who Corrupted Hadleyburg and Other Stories.

The following excerpt is taken from Harper's Monthly Magazine, September 1899:

Can fanaticism alone account for the persecution of the Jews? It is now my conviction that it is responsible for hardly any of it.

In this connection I call to mind Genesis, chapter 47. We have all read the story of the years of plenty and the years of famine in Egypt, and now Joseph with that opportunity, made a corner in broken hearts, and the crusts of the poor, and human liberty—a corner whereby he took away the nation's money to the last penny; took a nation's livestock all away, to the last hoof; took a nation's land all away, to the last acre. Then he took the nation itself, buying it for bread, man by man, woman by woman, child by child, till all were slaves; a corner which took everything, leaving nothing, a corner so stupendous that by comparison with it, the most gigantic corners in subsequent history are but baby things; for it dealt in hundreds of millions of bushels, and its profits were reckoned by the hundreds of millions of dollars. It was a disaster so crushing that its effects have not wholly disappeared from Egypt even today, more than 3,000 years after the event.

Was Joseph establishing a character for his race which survived long in Egypt, and in time would his name be familiarly used to express that character—like Shylock's? It was hardly to be doubted. Let us remember that this was centuries before the Crucifixion.

In the U. S. cotton states, after the war, the Jew came down in force, set up shop on the plantation, supplied all the negroes' wants on credit, and at the end of the season was the proprietor of the negro's share of the present crop and part of the next one. Before long the whites detested the Jew.

The Jew is being legislated out of Russia. The reason is not concealed. The movement was instituted because the Christian peasant stood no chance against his commercial abilities. The Jew was always ready to lend on a crop. When settlement day came, he owned the crop, and the next year he owned the farm, like Joseph.

In the England of John's time everybody got into debt to the Jew. He gathered all lucrative enterprises into his hands. He was the King of Commerce. He had to be banished from the realm. For like reasons, Spain had to banish him 400 years ago, and Austria a couple of centuries later.

In all ages, Christian Europe has been obliged to curtail his activities. If he entered upon a trade, the Christian had to retire from it. If he set up as a doctor, he took the business. If he exploited agriculture, the other farmers had to get at something else. The law had to step in to save the Christian from the poorhouse. Still, almost bereft of employments, he found ways to make money. Even to get rich. This history has a most sordid and practical look. Religious prejudices may account for one part of it, but not for the other nine.

Protestants have persecuted Catholics—but they did not take their livelihoods from them. Catholics have persecuted Protestants—but they never closed agriculture and the handicrafts against them. I feel convinced that the Crucifixion has not much to do with the world's attitude toward the Jew; the reasons for it are much older than that event...I am convinced that the persecution of the Jew is not in any large degree due to religious prejudice. No, the Jew is a money-getter. He has made it the end and aim of his life. He was at it in Rome. He has been at it ever since. His success has made the whole human race his enemy.

You will say that the Jew is everywhere numerically feeble. When I read in the Encyclopedia Britannica that the Jewish population of the United States was 250,000, I wrote to the editor and explained to him that his figures were without doubt a misprint for 25,000,000. People told me that they had reason to suspect that for business reasons, many Jews did not report themselves as Jews. It looks plausible. I am strongly of the opinion that we have an immense Jewish population in America. I am assured by men competent to speak that the Jews are exceedingly active in politics....

In closing I would also like to note that although Twain is considered to be a liberal today due to certain passages in "Huckleberry Finn" and towards the end of his life he was a pacifist who openly opposed the Spanish-American war, he was also very pro Confederate in many of his written works—not surprisingly, since he served for a short time in the Confederate Army before, in his own words, he "got bored with the whole thing and went West to look for gold." - W.S.

"No, the Jew is a money-getter. He has made it the aim and end of his life..."

Shocking!

New York Assemblywoman Gloria Davis is the head of the Black and Puerto Rican Women's Caucus in the New York state legislature. In addition to being a general Politically Correct spear carrier for the liberal wing of the Democratic party—or perhaps spear chucker would be a better word—Ms. Davis is the sponsor of a number of bills demanding drug rehabilitation instead of imprisonment, an issue which cuts very close to home for Her Honorable Self. Assemblywoman Davis was recently "shocked and alarmed" to learn that her daughter and her granddaughter have been running her home in the ritzy Albany suburb of Colonie as a crack house. They were also selling about a thousand bags of heroin every week, and the two enterprising Davis negresses even had their own brand, "Full Moon Express", complete with labels on their product.

How, precisely, the two younger women were able to conduct their business out of the Assemblywoman's home without that august lady noticing, including the coming and going of hundreds of addicts making purchases every week, has not been explained.

The Salami Slicer Is Slicing Away

Liberals have historically used what they call the "salami slicer" technique, the gradual whittling away of White Americans' rights thin slice by thin slice, as part of their ultimate goal of created a politically correct, welfare state dictatorship where government controls every aspect of our lives. They've been at it again, trying to do another end run around the First Amendment.

A little-known provision of the Clinton administration's 1995 Communications Decency Act criminalizes online communication meant to "annoy" the recipient of the message. The law calls for hefty fines and up to two years in Federal prison. Once again, in the guise of allegedly fighting pornography and "protecting children", we are in danger of losing a fundamental right, that of "annoying" our anointed liberal elite.

In theory this law is designed to stop obscene or threatening e-mail messages and faxes; in actual fact a number of patriot groups, militias, and individual White dissidents have already been subjected to FBI visits and "investigation" under this provision for sending e-mails, faxes, or making phone calls which are critical of the government to various politicians and public figures on the grounds that critical comment is intended to "annoy" them. No actual prosecutions have been brought as yet, to our knowledge; the law at present is being used merely to intimidate and gather information on dissenters.

The publishers of the appropriately named annoy.com Web site filed suit on Thursday in Federal district court in San Francisco Attorney General Janet Reno, arguing that the one-year-old law could unjustly punish indelicate or blunt opinion mongers if they send their messages by a telecommunications device. "It is a historic right of Americans to speak their minds bluntly and coarsely and, if necessary, with the view of annoying people," said J. Michael Traynor, a lawyer in the case. "Sometimes politicians don't respond to a one-time quiet message. Sometimes people feel they need to get in their face a little bit."

The Supreme Court is already reviewing one suit against the Communications Decency Act, brought last year by a coalition of free speech groups, individuals and Internet businesses. That case challenges a provision of the law that makes it illegal to use computer networks to display indecent material to those under 18 years of age. In theory that sounds good, but once again the "protecting kids" dodge is in operation to conceal the true liberal agenda. In other words, the government now intends to hold people legally liable and responsible for the behavior of other people over whom they have no control and whom they do not even know. The political implications are obvious.

The San Francisco suit challenges a different part of the law. Intended as an update of a Federal statute banning harassing or obscene phone calls, this provision outlaws the use of any electronic telecommunications device to convey comments when the intent is "to annoy, abuse, threaten or harass another person." Who defines the difference between what is free and what is "annoying" speech? The recipient. A politician or liberal need only call the FBI and say, "I find this person annoying" and in theory he or she can be arrested and sent to prison for two years.

Like all such liberal laws, this one is not being immediately abused—it has simply been placed quietly on the books, waiting to be applied at some future date when liberalism has sliced away a few more slices of the salami and taken away a few more guns and clamped the vice of dictatorship a little more firmly on America. It joins Charlie Schumer's ridiculously misnamed "Defense of the Republican Form of Government Act" which outlaws "unseemly speculation and baseless conspiracy theories regarding the Federal government." Presumably if someone sends an "annoying" e-mail which contains "unseemly speculation" or even—horror of horrors!—a "baseless conspiracy theory", you're in real trouble!

New NS Chat Room

The Party now operates its own channel on the IRC (Internal Relay Chat) system of the Internet. This new chat room is for Party members and serious National Socialists and racials, a place where they can gather and converse and conduct serious discussions without all the "noise" that exists on other channels. Anyone is welcome to drop and and converse, but anyone who makes themselves obnoxious or who persistently engages in profanity, personal abuse, or silliness of the kind that has ruined so many other chat rooms will be booted by ops Nathan DeMontigny, Eric Steinhauer, or Your Friend and Humble Gensec himself. I try to drop in myself for at least a couple of hours every evening, and those of you with computers are welcome to join the channel.

You will need mIRC software, which you can find fairly easy on a shareware basis by looking for it with any search engine, key word "mIRC". Once you download the mIRC software, you must then install it, following the instructions on your screen.

When you get into mIRC join the US Random Undernet server for the best connection, although any will do, and join channel #nswpp.

Take This Job And Shove It

In one of the last issues before the January hiatus, I asked for White readers to write in and discuss the hours they were now required to work in order just to keep their heads above water and make ends meet. The answers were pretty stunning, and I have no reason at all to believe any of you were exaggerating, because what you have told me fits in with coverage this same topic is now starting to get in Newsweek and other System media. Apparently we have a couple of guys who are working 80 hour weeks, and the 60 hour week is by no means at all uncommon. Overtime pay is no longer a luxury, it is the difference between paying the mortgage and the car payment and going into default on something. Another very common phenomenon is the man with two or even three jobs. Some yuppie guru has even written a book about it, entitled The Disappearance of Leisure.

Starting next week I'll be printing some of your letters on the subject. If any of you have any comments about life as a working stiff in Politically Correct Clintonian America, let me hear from you. The upshot of the responses I have been getting from many of you regarding the newsletter is that you want fewer long articles and more short items, which I will try to provide, but the best political and racial education doesn't come from news clippings or writers, it comes from your own lives.

RESISTANCE is published weekly by the Central Support Unit of the National Socialist White People's Party, Post Office Box 9444, Chapel Hill, N. C. 27515-9444, tel. 919-990-1466, e-mail nswpp@earthlink.net. Subscriptions are $30.00 per year $50.00 overseas air mail. RESISTANCE is published in loose-leaf format to facilitate and encourage photocopying and distribution in the White community.

"...We must endeavor to maintain quality in the future and to eliminate from our ranks the last traces of hobbyism, whether it manifests itself as uniform and memento fetishism or an unhealthy fascination with the gossip in every crackpot Movement newsletter..."

-Dr. William L. Pierce, from his famous work of deathless prose, "The Perils of Hobbyism."

Since October of 1990, long-time National Socialist writer Winston Smith has rocked the White racial nationalist movement world-wide with the most hard-hitting, no-holds-barred, tell-it-like-it-is journalism ever published by our side. Now Resistance! is the official organ of the revived and re-energized National Socialist White People's Party, originally founded by George Lincoln Rockwell in 1967 and one of only two periodicals on the racial right published on a weekly basis! This is the publication that every White racial patriot needs to be reading, the one mailing list everybody in the Movement needs to be on! Resistance! costs thirty dollars in the U.S. and fifty dollars overseas air mail....and it's worth every penny!

Yes, Winston, I want to satisfy my unhealthy fascination! I enclose $30.00 ($50.00 for overseas subscribers). Send me your crackpot newsletter!

RECOMMENDED READING

The following works have been selected because each of them has something to offer the Aryan reader by way of information, ideas, or instruction. This does not mean that we agree with every single word in them, or that you will. Most are written by our own people, but some are outright anti-White in content, while others contain leftist propaganda or perpetuate liberal stereotypes. Learning to read such enemy literature between the lines, to garner the truth and wisdom while scorning the lies and the malice, is in itself a skill which racial nationalists should cultivate and master.

Most of these works are available in bookstores or public libraries, although many are out of print, and you may have to hunt a bit or get them on inter-library loan. To assist you in obtaining those which are not readily available, we append a list of racial nationalist booksellers at the end of these recommendations.

A final word: inevitably, we will have left out someone's favorite book or author. The corpus of Aryan racist literature in the English language is far more extensive than the few titles listed here, and in future we hope to issue an even more extensive list when resources permit. And remember: cliché thought it may be, it is a truism that those who will not read have no advantage over those who cannot read. So turn off that damned tube and get down to the library.

Aryan History

A DISTANT MIRROR by Barbara Tuchman - A social history of 14th century France.
ANABASIS (The March Up Country) by Xenophon - Epic of ancient Greek courage.
BEOWULF - Ancient Saxon epic poem, full of blood and guts and thunder. Great stuff.
FIFTEEN DECISIVE BATTLES OF HISTORY by Edward Creasey - Military history.
OUR NORDIC RACE by Richard Kelly Hoskins - A good basic introduction.
POETIC EDDA - Norse epic poem.
THE CONQUEST OF GAUL by Julius Caesar - Roman method versus Celtic courage.
THE CONQUEST OF MEXICO by Thomas Prescott - 500 White men gain an empire.
THE DIARY OF BENVENUTO CELLINI - The ultimate Renaissance man. Witty and fun.
THE GUNS OF AUGUST by Barbara Tuchman - How Western civilization perished, 1914.
THE PROUD TOWER by Barbara Tuchman - Europe at its' height, before World War I.
THE SPANISH CIVIL WAR by Hugh Thomas - The good guys win one, for a change.
THE STORY OF ENGLISH (McNeil/Lehrer) - The book for the PBS television series.

Marxist Socialism

ANIMAL FARM by George Orwell - Classic allegory about Communist society.
BEHIND COMMUNISM by Frank L. Britton - THE basic introduction to the subject.
COMMUNIST MANIFESTO by Karl Marx and Frederick Engels.
CUBA by Jacobo Timerman - Lefty Jew can't even find anything good to say about Fidel.
DESTRUCTIVE GENERATION by Collier and Horowitz - Bad-mouthing the Sixties. A-1.
DOWN AND OUT IN PARIS AND LONDON by George Orwell - Early Communist polemic.
HARVEST OF SORROW by Robert Conquest - The Ukraine famine which killed millions.
OUT OF THE NIGHT by Jan Valtin - The story of a Communist agent in 1930s Germany.
THE GREAT TERROR by Robert Conquest - Mass murder in 1930s Russia.
THE GOD THAT FAILED Various authors, all ex-Communists. To the point.
THE RED DECADE by Eugene Lyons - First rate book! Now almost impossible to obtain.
THE ROAD TO WIGAN PIER by George Orwell - The beginning of his disillusionment.
THE TROUBLES by Joseph Conlon - Another jaundiced look at the 1960s. Highly readable.
WITNESS by Whittaker Chambers - The best written work on American Communism.

A CLOCKWORK ORANGE by Anthony Burgess - The sparkling quasi-Russian slang alone makes this a joy to read, but beyond that we once again are confronted with an Establishment attempt to penalize difference and enforce conformity, in this case through the use of biochemical behavior modification. The character of Alex is a shining monument to that irrepressible spirit of human depravity which can never be vanquished, his ultimate fate a triumph of man's unconquerable will to destroy.

THE COMPLETE SHERLOCK HOLMES STORIES by Arthur Conan Doyle - Not only enjoyable as detective stories, but for the glimpse they offer into the late Victorian era which I personally believe to have been Aryan man's pinnacle of achievement.

SELECTED WORKS OF BOOTH TARKINGTON - I can hear some of you now, saying "huh"? But I read Tarkington for relaxation, schmaltzy stuff like the Penrod series and Seventeen. I enjoy it because for a very brief time, I can return to a sane, stable, White world of peace and order and normal human relationships not based on psycho-political power games, political correctness, "diversity", the desperate scramble for money, or deviate sexual acts. We've pretty much forgotten what such a world is like, I'm afraid. It helps to go back now and then.

SELECTED WORKS OF H. P. LOVECRAFT - An Aryan fantasist and a genuine mystic, in my view second only to Edgar Allan Poe. Liberal revisionists have desperately tried to "clean up" Lovecraft's open Aryan racial nationalism in the years since his death in 1937, but it ain't gonna fly. Lovecraft was one of us, all right.

SELECTED WORKS OF H. L. MENCKEN - Another one of our people's forgotten literary heroes and philosophers. Sometimes called "the Will Rogers of Fascism."

COMPLETE WORKS OF WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE - No comment necessary, forsooth.

Winston's Personal Picks

1984 by George Orwell - If writers may be gifted with prophecy, Orwell had it. This book is absolutely essential in understanding the world we live in today---the abuse of language in the name of "political correctness", the attempt to criminalize thought, the demand for complete, lockstep conformity with Big Brother. READ!

George Lincoln Rockwell was born in Bloomington, Illinois, in the home of his maternal grandfather, on March 9, 1918. His father was a very successful headline comedian from 1912 until about 1935. His ancestors were German, French, English and Scotch, numbering among them many Revolutionary War figures, back to Marie Antoinette, the French queen.

Rockwell stayed in Bloomington, Illinois, only until he was old enough to get out of the hospital, when he was taken on the vaudeville circuit by his parents. He then spent some time in New Jersey, New York and California, but most of the time in Boothbay Harbor, Maine.

He attended Hebron Academy, a prep school near Lewiston, Maine after which he entered Brown University in Providence, Rhode Island, majoring in philosophy. In college, Rockwell enjoyed and did well in the science and other objective courses, but fought blindly and instinctively against the "sociology" and other similar departments which, unknown to him, were then preaching Marxist environmentalism and equalism which has played such havoc with our human, biological sciences.

Leaving Brown in the middle of his junior year, when it became obvious the U.S. would get into World War II in 1940, Rockwell enlisted as a Seaman in the United States Navy in Boston, Massachusetts. By the outbreak of World War II on December 7, 1941, he had entered Naval Aviation, and became a cruiser and battleship scout pilot and a fighter pilot. He served aboard the U.S.S. Omaha in the South Atlantic and off North Africa during the invasion. He was then sent to Naval Photographic school for pilots and assigned to the U.S.S. Wasp, and sent to the Pacific. He also became a Commander of Forward Air Control operations for Marine Corps assault troops. He was at Guadalcanal, Guam and other Pacific "hot spots". At the end of World War II he was commanding officer of a squadron in Hawaii, earning nine decorations.

Released from active duty, Rockwell attended Pratt Institute art school in New York, working part time in advertising and commercial art. In 1948, while still at Pratt, he won first prize of $1,000 in the National Society of Illustrators competition for a full page newspaper ad for the American Cancer Society. Although still in the ready reserves as Commanding Officer of a squadron in Washington, D.C., he launched a new magazine, "U.S. Lady", for the wives of U.S. service men.

In 1949, Rockwell founded the first big national advertising agency in the state of Maine. Recalled for the Korean War in 1950, he trained Marine and Navy pilots in close support of troops in the Korean War, and then was transferred to Iceland, where he became commanding officer of a squadron at Keflavik.

At about this time, he became deeply concerned about the way all he had fought for in two wars was being turned over to Communism. He noticed that almost all of the convicted Communist spies and traitors such as Julius Rosenberg, Ethel Rosenberg, Nathan Silvermaster, Harry Dexter White (Weiss), Robert Soblen, Morton Sobell, David Greenglass, Harry Gold, Miriam Moskowitz, Fred Rosenberg, and Sam Cohen (chief Communist spies caught in Canada), and most of the Communist intellectual leaders, such as Herbert and Bettina Aptheker, were racial Jews. He was especially shocked to find that "Who's Who" in Jewry, published by the Jews themselves, listed many of these atheist Communists very proudly as Jews, even though he had believed Jews were just a religion.

Observing that Hitler had said that Communism was Jewish, and that the Jews were out to degenerate and conquer the White Race by subversion and race-mixing, Rockwell bought a copy of Mein Kampf and read it, even though he thought he already knew what was in it from all he'd heard. He was astounded to find that it was actually a brilliant analysis of the mess Western Civilization has gotten into, and the only plan he'd ever seen for the White Race to save itself.

For a number of years, he tried to work with various "right-wing" organizations, all of pocrisy and especially the cowardice of the so-called "conservatives", Rockwell determined to attack at last, flying the Swastika banner which had come so close to saving Western Civilization and the White Race. "Our Cause is fundamentally the truth", he explained to horrified friends, "I do not see how we can win by lying or misrepresenting what we are for fear of the Jews."

"The only times in the hundred years of the rise of Communism that this plague has ever been actually BEATEN, it was beaten not by 'conservatives', but by radicals and fighters whom the enemy called 'Nazis' and 'Fascists', and whom they really did fear. Only in Germany, Spain and Italy has Communism ever been conquered. We are damned fools to be afraid to follow the only examples which ever worked!"

He hung up a Nazi banner in front of his home and dared the Jews to do something about it. They--and their friends and dupes--came in droves and mobs to do something about it, but Rockwell survived all the shooting, rocks and other Jewish "arguments". The publicity gave him a much needed platform from which to call the attention of his fellow Americans to the increasingly desperate situation of America and our great White Family of people.

Rockwell believed it was time for the White Man to take America back from the aliens, the minorities and the terrorists in power, under the demagoguery of cheap politicians. To accomplish this Rockwell believed he had to win not the few in the right-wing, or the upper classes, but the millions and millions of our people. And to win these people he had to offer them something besides a lot of empty platitudes about freedom and the Constitution. Only National Socialism offered a positive and progressive program for all the people, rather than just the middle and upper classes, and combined a concern for the purity and protection of the great White Race with a fighting determination to stop all further mongrelization of our people.

Within five years, Rockwell had led the Nazi Party from a tiny and scorned band of roughnecks willing to take to the streets to fight treason and race-mixing, to a Party which had headquarters in Washington, Chicago, Los Angeles and most major cities, and commanded the grudging respect of the enemy, even though there was powerful censorship of the American right-to-know of what Rockwell was doing.

Under Commander Rockwell the Party published the ROCKWELL REPORT, the STORMTROOPER, and the NATIONAL SOCIALIST WORLD, along with bulletins available to Party members only.

Rockwell had plans of organizing the "WHITE GUARD"--young, White fighting men to help protect society from the Black and Red revolution which had already conquered the police departments of Los Angeles, Chicago, Cleveland, and other cities.

George Lincoln Rockwell is the father of the present-day racist movement in the U.S. and the founder of American National Socialism. For most of his turbulent career as Commander of the A.N.P., Rockwell lived a shadowy existence on the fringes of the American political scene. He was misunderstood and rejected by the vast majority of his fellow White Americans, whom he loved dearly. He and his "tiny band of roughnecks" were alternately cursed, ridiculed and ignored by the mass media. They fought street battles without end with Communist and Jewish thugs who sought to silence them by force, and spent many a night in jail, courtesy of hostile politicians and police officers. Throughout it all, Lincoln Rockwell's warrior spirit of courage, idealism and heroic defiance was never crushed.

His years of persistence finally paid off in 1966, when thousands of White men, women and youth in Chicago followed his leadership in a spontaneous uprising against efforts forcibly to integrate all-White working-class neighborhoods. The uprising culminated in the now-famous White People's March of Sept. 10, 1966, in which hundreds of Whites followed Commander Rockwell's leadership under the sign of the Swastika.

Tragically, within a year Lincoln Rockwell was dead. On August 25, 1967, this authentic American hero fell beneath the bullets of a cowardly Marxist sneak-murderer. The Federal government made no effort to warn Rockwell of the danger he was in, although it almost certainly knew of the plans for the well-laid ambush through the agency of a notorious Jewish dirty-tricks outfit which was in touch with the assassin's partners. The gunman was later convicted on second-degree murder, but his accomplices were never brought to justice.

Yet though Lincoln Rockwell's body died on that black August afternoon, his spirit continues to live on in the hearts and minds of White men and women everywhere who continue to draw strength and inspiration from his heroic example.

What Is National Socialism?

National Socialism is a world view for White people, based on the ideas and concepts of the German racial nationalist philosopher and statesman Adolf Hitler (1889-1945). National Socialism was adapted to the political and racial conditions of the United States by the late U.S. Navy Commander George Lincoln Rockwell (1918-1967).

Owing to the tragic and unnecessary suffering which took place during the Second World War, and because certain powerful elements in our society to this day maintain an interest in obscuring and concealing the truth, half a century after the war's end massive misconceptions still exist in America today about what National Socialism was and is. The National Socialist body of belief is founded on three basic principles:

1. NATURAL ORDER - We believe that the universe is governed by natural laws. In order for Man to be happy and successful, he must first learn what these laws are and then follow them. We believe that Man is part of the natural world and that he is in no way separate or distinct from it. Because of this, we believe that society should be structured in accordance with the laws of Nature, and not in opposition to them as is the case today.

2. RACIAL IDEALISM - Racial idealism is based on the love of one's own people. It means placing the interests and welfare of the racial community to which you belong ahead of your own personal interests and desires. As racial idealists we have no wish to harm, exploit, or persecute other racial groups, despite a persistent media campaign of abuse and deliberate falsification to the contrary. We are only interested in protecting our own people against extinction, a fate all too likely if nothing is done about present conditions in America.

We believe that all men are not created equal. Just as every individual has his own strengths and weaknesses, so each race has certain qualities which make it different from other races. We believe that the White (or Aryan) race has the right to maintain its own biological, cultural and political independence and integrity, and that we have the right to control our own destiny. We also believe that the White race has the right to defend itself against all physical, economic, and spiritual attacks, no matter where they come from.

3. THE UPWARD DEVELOPMENT OF THE WHITE RACE - We want to do more than just defend our race; we want to see it improve. This can be done by encouraging a high birth rate among those sections of the White population which are the healthiest, strongest, and most intelligent. At the same time, our science should work to eliminate hereditary weaknesses and defects among our people. Our goal is that each new generation of White children will be better than the one before it.

In the United States and Canada, National Socialism is represented by the NATIONAL SOCIALIST WHITE PEOPLE'S PARTY, which was originally founded by George Lincoln Rockwell in 1967 and reconstituted in 1994. The N.S.W.P.P. fights for the survival of the White race and for true racial justice through the establishment of a sovereign Aryan Republic on North American soil.

"We Must Secure the Existence of Our People and a Future for White Children."

FROM THE ERA of Plato, Socrates, and Cato to that of DaVinci and Michelangelo, to Locke and Shakespeare, to Jefferson and Franklin, Western civilization has sprung from the creative genius of one kindred people. In the vast panorama of time this period was but a fleeting moment and a glorious dream. The near future will show what manner of civilization will follow the passing of the White man. How sad and ironic that the American republic, which was formed exclusively for the preservation and promotion of Western man, became the vehicle through which he was destroyed both here and in his European homeland.

For many years, I have struggled in whatever ways were available to a single powerless person to crack the iron media curtain and show my people that those very things which are protected, promoted, and forced upon us by those who today control the affairs of the Western world have destroyed every civilization we have ever built. I refer to such things as infanticide through abortion, a practice which has led to the murder of fifteen million babies of my kith and kin, and which is protected by the government and the Federal courts; homosexuality, whose adherents are forced upon us as role models and even teachers of our children by the government and Federal courts; and worst of all, the deliberate destruction of our very racial existence.

Those who have set out to mix and destroy the last remnant of Western man know full well that no people can continue in existence without a nation of their own in which to propagate, protect, and promote their own kind. They also know that a people who are not convinced of their own uniqueness and value will perish, and that is why I am slandered and destroyed when I show that nearly every improvement in the human condition has come from the fertile mind of Western man.

The White man is now a tiny minority in the world, yet he is denied not only a nation of his own but the integrity of the territorial imperative necessary to his survival. The guilt of those who partake in the destruction of this Race of men cannot be adequately described in the vocabulary of mortals. Regarding the prosecutors in this case, I say only that if the perpetuation of power is predicated on perjury, then the U. S. attorneys are as solid as the Rock of Gibraltar. But if Nature's laws allow for the concepts of justice or karmic debt, then they walk on quicksand.

That this trial even occurred is a violation of every Constitutional protection against double jeopardy. The legalistic machinations and chicanery involved in jeopardizing a man for potentially unlimited times for the same offense, by changing the legal description of that offense, by changing jurisdictions and so on are utterly repugnant to the sense of Anglo-Saxon justice as well as totally contrary to both the spirit and the intent of the Constitution. The mad frenzy of those who now control the Federal government of the United States to punish and destroy any White man who resists the deliberate admixture and murder of his rapidly disappearing Race is evident.

History predicts unspeakable horror for the last generation of White children, if I and others who shall come after me are not more successful in awakening our people from their sleep of death. Our task is as simple as it is overwhelmingly important. We must secure the existence of our people and a future for White children. In the face of that overriding historical imperative, what you do to me does not matter. I am not a brave man; I die the thousand deaths of the philosopher instead of the single death of the soldier. But I willingly sought this destiny, and I will not shrink from it.

Soon you will hear from another who will undoubtedly speak of his religious beliefs. Perhaps even at this late date, the power of a religious creed can save Western man, or perhaps Divine Providence will indeed lend a hand. If not, then those who rebel against tyranny must still accept the consequences with a shrug, or they are neither patriots nor men.

I say no more.....
